2018 JOHANN GEORG SHIRAZ

96 Points

“From a small, single parcel of dry-farmed 1875 plantings, this is made in a small quantity of between two and four barrels, depending on the natural yield of the vintage. Strong, dark berry and cherry nose with iodine and dark plum, as well as licorice. The palate has such silky and even-paced tannins and delivers a long stream of ripe dark-plum and black-cherry flavors. Smooth and dense. From biodynamically grown grapes. Drink or hold.”

95 Points

“Medium-deep crimson and a traditionally robust Barossan style with bold redcurrant, red cherry, apricot, mocha and grilled aromas with herb garden/ chinotto complexity. Richly flavoured and complex, there is lovely mid-palate viscosity, fine lacy textures and mineral length to provide a wine that is delicious now but will also improve over time.”
