2019 EDUARD SHIRAZ

93 Points

“Sourced from 3 vineyard blocks on the Kalleske property planted 1905–1973. An impressive, saturated red purple in the glass, with aromas of ripe satsuma plum, summer berry fruits, cedar, Asian spice, earth and dark chocolate. Impressive fruit intensity and concentration with super-ripe berry fruits, spice, plenty of oak heft and an intense, ripe finish that retains freshness and appeal. Impressive structure”

Dave Brookes

Halliday Wine Companion, 3 August 2022

94 Points

“A selection from four parcels on the estate, ranging from 1905 to 1973 plantings. It has a strong violet and iodine edge to the nose with blueberry and dark chocolate, as well as blackcurrant. There’s such depth to the palate with ripe dark plums, dark chocolate and lightly toasted spices. Good balance. From biodynamically grown grapes. Drink or hold. Screw cap”
