

2020 EDUARD SHIRAZ

94 Points

“Opaque crimson. Powerful chocolate, blackberry, new leather and roasted meat aromas. Dense flavours of plum, aniseed, meat stocks and chocolate with roasted walnut oak. Chocolatey texture and mouthcoating tannins with long mineral length. Now-2032.”

“Very old vines. Ample power. Plenty of oak slumped across the seams as reinforcement, as this full-weighted behemoth tips into bourbon, barbecued ribs, violet, gunpowder, kirsch and clove. Gritty and nicely coal face tannic across the finish. A wine of bombast, as much as a winning personality. A hot year, with drying tannins to attest. Drink or hold”
